EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

- 1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
- 2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Applicant's representatives Joseph Wrkich and Eckhard Kuesters on 4/11/06.
- 3. The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 2 (Currently Amended): A method for reporting a quality of a transmission channel between a transmitter and a receiver, comprising:

transmitting frames of data from said transmitter over said transmission channel to said receiver;

sending back from said receiver to said transmitter a non-acknowledgement information when a frame of data received by said receiver is detected as erroneous;

sending from said receiver to said transmitter, at scheduled reporting times, an information representative of the quality of the transmission channel at said reporting times;

sending in a same subframe the non-acknowledgement information from said receiver back to said transmitter together with information representative of the quality of the transmission channel at a time the non-acknowledgement information is sent, said time being different than said reporting times; and sending said information representative of the quality of the transmission channel together with said non-acknowledgement information when the quality of the transmission channel has deteriorated by at least a [[first]] predetermined amount over a last reported quality of the transmission channel.

Claim 4 (Currently Amended): A method for reporting a quality of a transmission channel between a transmitter and a receiver, comprising:

transmitting frames of data from said transmitter over said transmission channel to said receiver;

sending back from said receiver to said transmitter a non-acknowledgement information when a frame of data received by said receiver is detected as erroneous;

sending from said receiver to said transmitter, at scheduled reporting times, an information representative of the quality of the transmission channel at said reporting times;

sending in a same subframe the non-acknowledgement information from said receiver back to said transmitter together with information representative of the quality of the transmission channel at a time the non-acknowledgement information is sent, said time being different than said reporting times; and sending back to said transmitter an acknowledgement information when a frame of data received by said receiver is detected as error-free, and if by a time said acknowledgement is sent, the quality of the transmission channel has improved by at least a [[second]] predetermined amount over a last reported quality of the transmission channel, the receiver additionally sends an information representative of the quality of the information channel at the time the acknowledgement information is sent.

- 4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
- 5. Claims 2 and 4-5 are allowed.

Application/Control Number: 10/619,444

Claim 2 is allowed because the closest prior art, Ahmed (Patent No.: 6,631,127) in view of Malladi et al. (Pub. No.: 20030210668), either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render obvious a method for reporting a quality of a transmission channel between a transmitter and a receiver comprising sending information representative of the quality of the transmission channel together with non-acknowledgement information when the quality of the transmission channel has deteriorated by at least a predetermined amount over a last reported quality of the transmission channel in combination with all other limitations in the claim(s) as defined by applicant.

Claim 4 is allowed because the closest prior art, Ahmed (Patent No.: 6,631,127) in view of Malladi et al. (Pub. No.: 20030210668), either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render obvious a method for reporting a quality of a transmission channel between a transmitter and a receiver comprising if by a time an acknowledgement is sent, the quality of the transmission channel has improved by at least a predetermined amount over a last reported quality of the transmission channel, the receiver additionally sends an information representative of the quality of the information channel at the time the acknowledgement information is sent in combination with all other limitations in the claim(s) as defined by applicant.

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
